WELCOME

A very warm welcome to Tiree and TMF 2025, our 14th edition of the festival! Once again we are blown away by the support and commitment from people to travel to the island from all over the world - both first time visitors and those returning for another TMF adventure!

This year's festival brings some exciting changes and additions, including updates to the site layout as well as new amenities and features such as beachside saunas, wellness activities and our new VIP Lounge offering exclusive drink and food offerings. All have limited capacity so make sure you check these out and book in advance if you want to guarantee your access to these exciting new elements of TMF

Running a music festival on the mainland is a huge undertaking. Running one on an island obviously adds another level of logistical challenges and cost. We want to acknowledge the incredible efforts of our team, who continue to rise to these challenges and do their very best to create an amazing experience for all attendees within these unique parameters. Every festival is a learning experience, and as always, there are areas we aim to improve and develop moving forward, so we can continue to deliver the best experience for you year after year.

TMF2025

WELCOME

We would like to dedicate this festival to our late colleague and great friend Louis "Louie" Barrow, who was with us every year since the very first festival in 2010 as part of Fergie's legendary site team. We'll miss him dearly – not only during the event but also at the Monday night volunteer party, which was always his moment to shine, whether on his mouth organ or whatever instrument he could get his hands on! Please join us in raising a dram to Louie over the weekend.

As always, please take time to read this programme. It contains all key information you'll need to make the most of your TMF experience. Please be mindful of the island and land, dispose of your waste safely and sustainably throughout the site and help us take care of this very special place.

Have a fantastic time at TMF 2025 and thank you again for your support of our community festival.

Regards

Daniel Gillespie & Stewart MacLennan
TMF Co-founders & Directors

Jemima Hall is an artist and educator of ancestral skills based across Scotland's Inner and Outer Hebrides. Her practice blends foraging, folklore, and land-based craft in a way that reconnects people — young and old — to the wild and wonderful natural world around them.

At TMF 2025, Jemima offers a series of unique, immersive experiences on Tiree's shores and croft-lands. Following the foraging walks, Jemima invites children (and their grown-ups) to join her for a seaweed art session. Using collected seaweeds, the group will collaborate on a large-scale mosaic — perhaps in the shape of a legendary sea dragon, selkie, or other creature of Tiree's coastal mythos.

It's hands-on, a bit messy, and completely magical.

There are so many people, businesses and organisations that come together to make TMF possible year after year. Without that collaborative commitment and support, it simply would not be possible to deliver the festival.

A huge thank you again to CreativeScotland as our primary funder of the event and specifically the Elevate Stage. One of our key objectives as an organisation is to offer performance opportunities to young musicians and without the support of Creative Scotland we would have 50% less bands performing and one less stage at the festival, so we hope everyone appreciates the value of that funding and the opportunities it creates.

We appreciate the efforts of our travel partners Loganair & CalMac to schedule additional capacity at a time when there is massive national pressure on public services and facilities. Our event triples the population of the island and we are always engaging with our partners to try and make things better. Discussions and close working are already underway regarding 2026.

A massive thank you to our private sponsors that not only help make the event financially viable, but act as a great source of expertise, support and guidance year on year. 30% of the event budget is reliant on funding and sponsorship which highlights how essential their support is in making the event possible.

The final thank you is always to the volunteers, team and TMF community for their commitment, energy and love for Tiree. You are the heartbeat of TMF and this festival would not be possible without you, thank you.
